MISSING AIRMAN BEING SOUGHT

Captain Mansell R. James Left Lee, Mass., Last Thursday

FOR ATLANTIC CITY
AND HAS NOT ARRIVED

James Was Last Reported as Being Seen Near Winchester Center, Conn.

Mineola, N. Y., June 3.—Search for Captain Mansell R. James, the British ace, who departed last Thursday in a biplane en route from Lee, Mass., to Atlantic City, was started from here to-day by army aviators. Lieut. Frost, formerly commander of the army air service here, was assigned to the search by Colonel Archie Miller, commander at Hazelhurst field.
Lieut. Frost planned to fly to Hartford, Conn., and from there to cover the territory in the vicinity of Winchester Center, where Captain James is last reported to have been seen.
In addition to the army aviators' search the Aero club of America has appealed to people living in the territory surrounding Winchester Center to join in the hunt for the missing flier.

WILLARD IS READY TO START TRAINING

Defender of World's Championship Pugillistic Title Gets Rested After His Trip from California.

Toledo, Ohio, June 3.—Thoroughly rested from his tiresome journey from California, Jess Willard is ready to-day to settle down to training at his camp on the shores of Maumee Bay for his heavyweight championship contest with Jack Dempsey here July 4. The title-holder planned to go on the road for five miles, and do his first boxing in camp this afternoon.

Recreation will be in order for Dempsey until Saturday, when he will resume boxing. The challenger dropped all work with the gloves yesterday after stepping 12 three-minute rounds.

The Test.

"So you bought a parrot yesterday?"
"Yes; I want to see if they live a hundred years as people say."—Boston

Tobacco

Remember—Quantity can never take the place of Quality.

Tobacco that is not Turkish can never take the place of 100% pure Turkish.

"Bundle" cigarettes are plentiful in quantity—Helmar cigarettes are superior in "Quality."
